Lou D’Allesandro, NH State Senator

The economic recession is taking its toll on businesses, families and now government. What degree of economic damage will we confront in 2009 and 2010, and what are the specific implications for NH? What will it mean for state government, its revenues, our taxes, and the services on which so many NH residents depend? Is the State Legislature prepared to approve gambling? A candid set of briefings from those who make it their mission to track and report on the basic ingredients of this historic economic downturn.
